HATTIESBURG AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Dear HAHS Supporter:

Now more than ever Hattiesburg Area Historical Society needs your financial support through dues and donations. Gifts are tax deductible and acknowledged making this a special way to recognize friends and express sympathy. Individual dues are $10; Couple-$15; Student-$2; and Life-$100 per person. Mail labels are updated regularly with the last year dues were paid.

Hattiesburg Area Historical Society supports you. Many volunteer hours are being spent on THE HISTORY OF FORREST COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI to assure its quality. Information on how to include personal histories of anyone living or who ever lived in Forrest County (including all of Hattiesburg) been given through all forms of the media, and with letters and programs, and by word of mouth. Don't delay if your family has not been included.

Hattiesburg Area Historical Society actively supports education. HAHS is an Adopt-A-School Paterner with Hawkins Junior High School Library. Special activities and programs for children include other schools.

Hattiesburg Area Historical Society promotes tourism by planning and guiding tours, supplying information for family reunions, and aiding researchers. (Fairley Reunion-Cabot Lodge-Sept. 30 & Oct. 1.) Efforts to preserve THE LEAF, circa 1830 riverboat, have drawn national and international interest.

Hattiesburg Area Historical Society cooperates with other organizations to promote activities and events.

HAHS WORKS FOR YOU to improve the area quality of life through HAHS MUSEUM exhibits and programs that relate the past to current events and the future.

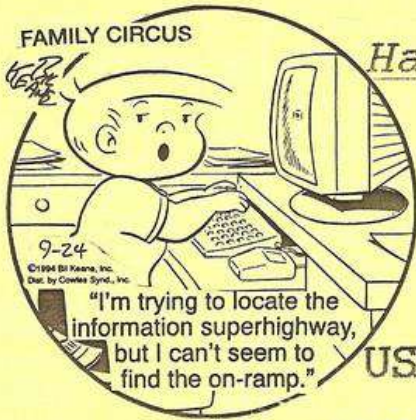

SUPPORT HAHS, HAHS WORKS FOR YOU
